Miss Vera Onativia Among Who Entertained at Their Homes.

Among the many parties of New Year's eve was the dance given last night by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wright Harriman at Sherry's for their debutante daughter, Miss Miriam Harriman. The ballroom was beautifully decorated with pink and white azaleas hung about the walls in ouls NVI, baskets, and there were groups of bay trees festooned with these flowers. In the centre of the ballroom mingled with white azaleas, and the foyer, where Mrs. Harriman and her daughter received, was similarly deco-

It was a party almost entirely for oung people, and just at midnight the spotlight which played on a Scotch bagpiper, who appeared in the middle of the room. He played "Auld Lang Syne" and other oid melodies, and just after the stroke of midnight the lights came on radually. When the lights were at their gratulations, after which the dance was resumed. Conrad's two bands played throughout the night, so that there was no cessation of dancing except while sup-per was being served in the small balln. Afterward dancing was reof this morning.
